ONE THIRD OFF

BY IRVIN COBB ✓

This comedy shows Fatty who weights but 416 lbs. and who is in love with a very slim girl who refuses to marry him until he reduces. He at once enters a local reducing school and after a few strenuous days, he finds that he has gained instead of lost. His sweetheart appreciating the efforts that he has made in her behalf suggests that the young man try GOLF - which he does. But he is more of an annoyance on the golf course than he was in the gymnasium and he is finally put to route by a number of irate players whose games he has broken up. In despair, he decides to use cave man methods and the girl wiggling and struggling is taken to the minister to marry against her will, but she recovers from the rough treatment and a subtitle tells us that when time has duly passed Fatty and Slim (Wife) are leading a band of several juveniles.
